

Olymel fills more than 140 roles per month with recruitment process outsourcing (RPO).

industry: food processing

challenge

A decentralized recruiting strategy and the perception of unattractive tasks made it difficult to fill the company's 1,000 open positions in the company's five main plants, and ,2000 roles overall each year.

solution

Implementing Randstad Sourceright's RPO solution leads to a more consistent approach to attract, engage and hire qualified talent for a company with critical roles to fill and brand perception challenges.

key results

The company now successfully fills more than 140 roles per month across five main plants.
