

educational services leader meets increasing demand for testing proctors with hybrid payroll solution.

industry: educational services challenge

a scalable and cost effective model for sourcing and payrolling testing proctors to help administer standardized testing during peak season from March to June solution

end-to-end payroll solution that utilizes Randstad Sourceright's recruitment capabilities and payroll processes; includes a Randstad-branded workforce scheduling platform

key results

better equipped to supply the quality talent that helps the company meet growing demand for its services

> read the full case study

