

RPO case study: manufacturing company achieves scalability, enables HR to focus on key priorities.

industry: filtration and purification product manufacturing challenge

high competition for skilled talent, shifting demands and limited capacity among HR teams at individual distribution centers

solution

recruitment process outsourcing (RPO) in 27 countries to manage the end-to-end talent acquisition for hourly roles, as well as a new system for candidate reimbursement

key results

- candidate reimbursement times reduced from months to 7-14 days
- percent of U.K. agency fills reduced by nearly 39% in two years
- freeing HR to focus on other strategic work
- increased candidate and hiring manager satisfaction scores

> read the full case study

